

“Logic As The Shadow of Mathematics”

Amir Tabatabai

Abstract

In Brouwerian intuitionism, mathematics is the world of mental constructions and logic as the collection of the universal laws behind these constructions is nothing but a distorted shadow of the real mathematics. This role is clearly far from the foundational role that logic is usually believed to play. In this talk, we try to formalize this Brouwerian extrinsic interpretation of logic.